What is G-P Contractor?

You can now manage all your hiring needs in one single place, regardless of employment type. G-P Contractor is an extension of our #1 SaaS-based Global Employment Platform™, enabling you to hire contractors in 180+ countries.

How can G-P Contractor help your company?

Expand globally, quickly and affordably: Every company's global growth process is different, which is why we've expanded our offering to include contractors for any required short- or long-term projects – so you no longer have to deal with multiple companies, points of contact, and dashboards.

Unlock accurate payments: G-P Contractor eases contractor bi-monthly payments in 150 currencies and automatically generates competitive global contracts through G-P's #1 SaaS-based Global Employment Platform™ – all without requiring you to set up an entity or an international bank account.

Empower your contractors: Give your contractors access to the market-leading Global Employment Platform™ to ensure their end-to-end hiring and invoicing experiences are transparent and consistently excellent, regardless of location. Contractors can submit and track invoices and their customers can review invoices and request payments – all through the platform.
