About

NAB SHOW
Creator Lab

Broadcasting is now a dynamic, multi-platform ecosystem where content is created and monetized across all screens. As creators and traditional broadcasters converge, every company is a media company—and every screen is a chance to engage audiences. The Creator Lab at NAB Show is at the heart of this shift, bringing creators, brands, broadcasters, and platforms together to innovate and shape storytelling's future.

Why NAB Show

NAB Show is the premier event for creators and industry pros to gain practical skills, discover cutting-edge tools, and connect with top brands, broadcasters, and studios. It brings together a diverse community from media, entertainment, and technology to learn, network, and drive innovation in content creation.

The Growing Market for Creator Content

The global creator economy is valued at over $191 billion in 2025 and is projected to surpass $525 billion by 2030, growing at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 22.5%

 EXPLODING TOPICS

Creator-generated ad content will exceed 50% of global ad revenue for the first time in 2025, with creators earning about $185 billion directly in creator earnings—a 20% increase over 2024.

theguardian

A global market report estimates $119B in content creation spend in 2024, projected to nearly double (\approx $275B) by 2033—indicating strong ongoing investment in gear and infrastructure.

 Business Research
INSIGHTS

91% of content creators now integrate AI tools into their creation workflow, up from 84% in 2024.
